Look Forward To Fall Harvest Week At the Hawthorne Hotel

Salem, MA June 10, 2008-- It may only be summer, but we want you to plan ahead for fall in historic Salem, Massachusetts. With cooler temperatures and vibrant leaves, the Hawthorne Hotel (www.HawthorneHotel.com) brings its guests "Fall Harvest Week" and soon after, their acclaimed Fall Harvest Wine Dinner.

During the last week of August, the Hawthorne Hotel will be creating a new menu every day using locally-grown and offered ingredients available during this special week. They use as much local produce as possible, ensuring quality and total freshness along with making an eco-friendly statement. Fall Harvest week is August 25-August 31 and concludes with a celebratory Sunday Brunch. You don't want to miss it so make your reservations now at www.HawthorneHotel.com!

The Hawthorne Hotel extends its fall events calendar with the Fall Harvest Wine Dinner, just three weeks later on September 17th. This exquisite feast will feature Executive Chef Steve Nelson's culinary delights paired with award-winning wines from Michael and David winery of Lodi, California. Though the menu has not yet been revealed, be prepared for a bounty of fresh-picked items from local farms: showcasing meats, seafood, cheeses, fruits and vegetables. There will be five courses, including hors d'oeuvres, all matched perfectly to the wines. Price is $85 per person including tax and gratuities!

When asked about the menu, Chef Nelson said, "Since the menu is composed of freshly harvested products at their peak quality, we will be sourcing...tasting, and creating a menu for you, and we will confirm the menu closer to the date. You will not be disappointed. It will be a fun and informative evening. An excellent way to kick off autumn in Salem and relax with friends, food and wine before the Halloween madness begins."

Dinner commences at 6:30. Contact (978) 825-4311 for reservations or visit: <http://www.hawthornehotel.com/packages.htm> before tickets are sold out!
