Hawthorne Hotel Helps HAWC!

(Historic Hotel joins local organization to help raise money)

Salem, MA—The mission of HAWC is “...to create social change by taking action against personal and societal patterns of violence and oppression.” Partners of HAWC (Healing Abuse Working for Change) for many years, the Hawthorne Hotel aims to help with that mission during an All-You-Can-Eat Buffet on October 6, 2010.

On Wednesday, October 6, HAWC and Salem’s legendary Hawthorne Hotel will combine forces to make an impact on those who are in abusive relationships. For $20 (Adults) and $10 (Children 4-13), guests can take advantage of a New England Comfort dinner buffet that includes: Garden Green Salad with Cranberry Vinaigrette, Chicken Breast with Apples, Pecans and Maple Dijon Sauce, Roast Pork Loin with Apricot Cornbread Stuffing, Garlic Mashed Potatoes, Fall Vegetable Medley, Chef’s Famous Macaroni & Cheese and Warm Apple Crisp with Freshly Whipped Cream.

“October’s brilliant colors, crisp air and bountiful apples and pumpkins cheer us at the same time they prepare us for colder days ahead,” says HAWC about the event. “October [should also be remembered] as domestic violence month. It’s the time to embrace ways to free those who are caught in the cycle of abuse.”

Folks of all ages are invited to this delicious dinner in the Grand Ballroom of the Hawthorne Hotel in Salem, Massachusetts from 5-8pm on October 6, 2010--20% of the proceeds will be donated to HAWC to help make a difference.
